

Fabricio Benatti
Vice President, Latin America Commercial Operations

Fabricio Benatti joined Agrinos in 2016, bringing extensive expertise across the fruit and vegetable supply chain and a strong background that includes sales, general management and product development. Previously, Mr. Benatti held leadership roles with BASF as GMO Project Leader in Brazil, Ouro Fino AgroSciences as General Manager for Africa, and Bayer Vegetable Seeds as Brazilian Country Manager. He earned a Bachelor of Science from FEOB University, an Agronomy Engineer degree from CREUPI University and a Masters of Business Administration from Fundação Getulio Vargas. Benatti will be based in Barueri City, Brazil.